

Terms and Conditions for The University of Law International Bursary

These terms and conditions (“Terms”) apply to the international bursary scheme ( ) offered by The University of Law Limited (No.07933838) (“ULaw”, “we”, “our” or “us”), which offers a reduction in course fees to eligible International Students (as defined below) who have received an offer on a Qualifying Course (each as defined below) with ULaw.

These Terms apply in relation to Qualifying Courses commencing from 1 July 2024 to 30 June 2025. This includes face to face attendance mode courses at one of ULaw campuses in the United Kingdom, and full time and part time online courses. Please see paragraph 2 for further detail.

You should pay particular attention to the provisions of paragraphs 3.4, 4.3, 4.4, 5.4, 6, 11.5 and 11.7.

For the avoidance of doubt, you remain bound by these Terms in addition to the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule (as defined in the glossary below). If you accept your place on a Qualifying Course at ULaw but are not or cease to be eligible for the International Bursary, you remain liable for your course fees under the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule.

If you have any queries or concerns relating to the terms of the International Bursary, please contact us at internationalscholarships@law.ac.uk.

- d. “Fee Schedule” means the schedule setting out the Annual Tuition Fees that you are required to pay for a Qualifying Course and which is sent to you in an email when ULaw offers you a place on a Qualifying Course and again when you accept your place on your Qualifying Course. The Fee Schedule explains your Fee Liability (as defined below);
- e. “Fee Liability” means the amount that you are responsible for paying for the Qualifying Course once you have accepted your offer of a place with ULaw on the Qualifying Course and which will be calculated in accordance with the provisions on fee liability as set out in the Student Terms and Conditions;
- f. “General Alumni Discount” means the £500 discount to eligible Alumni students (as defined on the ULaw website at www.law.ac.uk/alumni/ who have previously successfully completed a course with ULaw. More information on this discount can be found here <https://www.law.ac.uk/about/alumni/loyalty-scheme/>;
- g. “International Student” means a person who has a confirmed place on a Qualifying Course whose nationality is not British, does not have a settled or pre-settled status and is an international/overseas fee payer;
- h. “Qualifying Course”

- (b.) have received an offer of a place on a Qualifying Course at ULaw;
- (c.) have accepted your place and enrolled on a Qualifying Course to start between 1 July 2024 to 30 June 2025 (for attendance mode at one of the ULaw campuses in the United Kingdom and online courses); and
- (d.) be classified as an International Student and required to pay international/overseas fees for your Qualifying Course (where the international/overseas fees differ from domestic fees) and be able to provide Satisfactory Evidence (as defined in the Glossary) to show that you classify as an International Student.

You must notify ULaw immediately of any change in your circumstances which may affect your eligibility to receive an International Bursary. If you fail to do so, ULaw will be entitled to recover from you the value of the Fee Reduction offered under the International Bursary or any associated award or benefit. ULaw shall also be entitled to recover from you the value of the Fee Reduction offered under the International Bursary given to you in error.

- 3.3. Even if you meet the Eligibility Criteria in paragraphs 3.1(a.) to 3.1(d.) above, you will cease to be eligible for an International Bursary if at any time you:
- (a.) you cancel your place on the Qualifying Course;
  - (b.) you are withdrawn from the Qualifying Course;
  - (c.) you transfer to a course that is not listed as a Qualifying Course in Schedule 1 to these Terms;
  - (d.) secure or subsequently obtain, full financial sponsorship for your course from an employer or other sponsoring organisation; or
  - (e.) you receive a loan or grant from The Student Loans Company UK (please see The Student Loans Company website for further information).
- 3.4. If you become ineligible to receive the International Bursary under paragraph 3.3 at any time during your Qualifying Course, you will be liable for the Annual Tuition Fee for your Qualifying Course without any Fee Reduction applied, in accordance with your Student Terms and Conditions and your Fee Schedule.

4. Satisfactory Evidence required to qualify for an International Bursary

- 4.1. For the purposes of paragraph 3.1(d.) above, Satisfactory Evidence means originals or copies of passports, any evidence submitted to ULaw on CAS Shield and/or your application to receive a 'Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies' (further information available here) from ULaw, and any other proof for the nationality that you stated on your application to study at ULaw ("Satisfactory Evidence").
- 4.2. Please note:
- (a.) for face to face attendance mode Qualifying Courses, ULaw will take copies of

- 4.3. Failure to provide accurate and complete Satisfactory Evidence will mean that you immediately cease to be eligible for the International Bursary and the provisions of paragraph 3.4 (above) will apply.
- 4.4. ULaw reserves the right to request you to submit any further evidence as it may reasonably require to support your offer under the International Bursary. You will be given a period of time within which you must respond to that request. Failure to respond within the given timeframe will mean that you immediately cease to be eligible for the International Bursary and the provisions of paragraph 3.4 (above) will apply.

5. Application of the Fee Reduction

- 5.1. So long as you meet the Eligibility Criteria, your International Bursary will automatically be allocated to you once you are in receipt of an offer on a Qualifying Course from ULaw. You do not need to make an application for the International Bursary.
- 5.2. Once you have accepted your offer to study at ULaw on a Qualifying Course the relevant Fee Reduction specified in Schedule 1 for that Qualifying Course will be applied to the final instalment(s) of the balance of your Annual Tuition Fee according to your Fee Schedule, instalment or payment plan. The Fee Reduction specified in Schedule 1 for your Qualifying Course is the Fee Reduction you will receive under the International Bursary.
- 5.3. Prior to the start of your Qualifying Course you will be issued with a fee instalment plan (to be read alongside the Student Terms and Conditions and Fee Schedule)

11. General

- 11.1. The International Bursary is made available to students at the sole discretion of ULaw. ULaw's decision shall be final.
- 11.2. You understand and acknowledge that places on the Qualifying Courses are subject to availability.
- 11.3: These Terms apply in addition to (and do not replace) our Student Terms and Conditions in relation to your Qualifying Course.
