Online Study from September 2022

Module Demands Document

June 2022

Introduction

This document is produced by The University of Law (the University) to provide information about the demands of the modules for prospective students. Detailed questions about the extent of adjustments which may be made for students with support requirements should be addressed to the Disability Support and Inclusion Service. This document may be made available to medical practitioners who may be asked to provide a professional judgement on the ability of an applicant to complete modules.

The information included is an indicative guide for the online delivery commencing in September 2022. Students who enrol on modules will be subject to the regulations in force at that time.

This document covers the requirements of the module/s.

Support for Students

University of Law Inclusion Plans (ULIPs)

The University has a dedicated Disability and Inclusion Service to assist students in accessing modules. We encourage students to share information about disabilities and health conditions with the University as early as possible and preferably prior to starting a module so that adjustments can be put in place as early as possible.

Medical and / or diagnostic evidence should be provided along with confirmation of any Disabled (DSA) funding. Upon receipt of this information the Disability and Inclusion Service will create a University of Law Inclusion Plan which will detail any module and exam / assessment adjustments. These are then communicated to campus-based Disability Liaison Officers, tutors and assessment offices to implement the adjustments.

The University is able to provide diagnostic assessments with an Educational Psychologist for students suspecting a Specific Learning Difference (SpLD) for example: Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, and Dyscalculia. The student will incur a small contribution fee of £75. Once completed the Disability and Inclusion Service can put in place a University of Law Inclusion Plan detailing the relevant adjustments to module/s and assessments.

The Disability and Inclusion Service can advise you on how to obtain DSA, we recommend you
