1 The University of Law's Trans Student Policy

Possible considerations for discussion around any impact on studies

Appendix B – External Support and Resources

Appendix C – Glossary of Terms

Cisgender or Cis someone whose gender identity aligns with the gender they were assigned at birth. Non-trans is also used by some people.

Cross Dresser a cross dresser

Trans man	A person who was assigned female at birth but identifies and lives as a man.
Trans woman	A person who was assigned male at birth but identifies and lives as a woman.
Transitioning	See 'Gender reassignment'
Transphobia	The fear, anger, intolerance, resentment and discomfort that some people may have as a result of another person being trans.
Transsexual	Traditionally used to describe a person diagnosed with gender dysphoria. The term is still used by some although many prefer the term trans or transgender.

Key dates
4	If the student is/will be undergoing surgery, do they know when this will be?
5	Is any time off required for surgery/recovery/medical appointments?
6	Are there any temporary or permanent changes to the student's experience which ULaw could consider to support the student?

7 When does the student wish for any name

Training

18 Will there be a need to arrange training for fellow students or staff members? If so, who should be trained (training can be sourced by the Student Support team)? Would the student like to attend/be involved in any training?
